"...it's his most assured and emotionally gripping story yet, more fluent and ambitious than 'The Kite Runner', more narratively complex than 'A Thousand Splendid Suns' ... a testament to [Hosseini]' power as an old fashioned storyteller."
Michiko Kakutani, The New York Times

SPONSORED BY UNM ENGLISH DEPARTMENT'S LITERATURE PROGRAM

A $31 TICKET INCLUDES ONE COPY OF HIS BOOK & ONE ADMISSION TO THE EVENT WHERE HOSSEINI WILL BE IN CONVERSATION WITH NEW MEXICO inFocus HOST, GENE GRANT. HE WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR SIGNING BOOKS AND MEETING FANS.

Hosseini, a medical doctor by training, began writing Kite Runner while in practice. In 2006, the UNCHR, the United Nations Refugee Agency named Dr. Hosseini a Goodwill Envoy. His success has enabled him to establish the Khaled Hosseini Foundation, which provides humanitarian assistance to the people of Afghanistan.
